Deanna Ruble Clinton County's Franklin B. Walter all-scholastic award recipient

Friday, April 23, 2010

Deanna Ruble, a senior at East Clinton High School, has been honored by the Ohio Educational Service Center Association and the Southern Ohio Educational Service Center as Clinton County's 2010 Franklin B. Walter all-scholastic award winner.

Ms. Ruble received the award, named for Ohio's former State Superintendent of Public Instruction, at an awards luncheon held in Columbus on April 14. Award recipients must have demonstrated outstanding academic achievement as well as other significant school and community accomplishments. Ms. Ruble plans to attend Ohio Northern University and obtain a doctor of pharmacy degree.

Ms. Ruble is a member of East Clinton High School National Honor Society and the Varsity Academic Team. She is first chair alto saxophone in the wind ensemble. Ms. Ruble has participated in many clubs at East Clinton High School and has been the recipient of many academic awards.

She said, "I seek to grow in faith, character, and knowledge from the many exciting and trying experiences I will surely encounter throughout my life."

Deanna is the daughter of Dean and Linda Ruble of New Vienna.
