

Hiram College to Showcase Work of Portage County Middle and High School Students

April 8, 2010

The 32nd Annual Portage County Art Show will be held the week of April 12 through 15, 2010, at the Gelbke Fine Arts Gallery at Hiram College in Hiram, Ohio. The show highlights work from county middle and high school students.

All of the city, local and exempted village school districts in Portage County will be contributing artwork from students for competition in 19 artistic classifications and, for the high school division, a Senior Portfolio category. There are over 1,000 entries in the show annually.

The show is open to the public for viewing daily from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

The event is co-sponsored by the Portage County Educational Service Center and the Streetsboro City and Waterloo Local Schools. The Educational Service Center hosts the show annually, with cooperation from all of the county school districts on a rotating basis.

Best of Show is awarded for the middle school division, high school division and for Best Senior Portfolio. Judging is conducted by local and regional fine arts teachers, college faculty and area professional artists.

Posted by Meredith Tayek · Filed Under Headline News