

<<Back

Lordstown student wins spelling bee in Trumbull county

TRUMBULL COUNTY, Ohio- A Lordstown high school student won the spelling bee at Champion high school Wednesday.

Ben Rhinehart correctly spelled the word "slovenly" to clinch the win in the event, which is sponsored by Trumbull County Educational Service Center.

Students from 21 schools competed in the bee, which is designed to prepare students for the annual events.

All content © Copyright 2000 - 2010 WorldNow and WFMJ. All Rights Reserved.
For more information on this site, please read our Privacy Policy and Terms of Service.