

Students to participate in Exceptional Olympics

CantonRep.com staff report

Posted May 05, 2010 @ 07:39 PM

The Stark County Educational Service Center will present the Stark County Exceptional Olympics at Perry High School Friday.

More than 300 students age 6 to 22 will participate in events, including the 50-yard dash, soccer ball kick, obstacle course, football pass, bowling, softball batting, base running and others challenges.

The public is welcome to attend. A concession stand will be open.

Opening ceremonies will begin at 9:30 a.m., with contests from 10 to 11:30 a.m. Closing ceremonies will take place at 12:15 p.m.

The school is located at 3737 13th Street SW., Perry Township.
