Technology conference planned for educators

CANFIELD — The Mahoning County Educational Service Center is sponsoring a technology conference from 8 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Oct. 16 at the Mahoning County Career and Technical Center on North Palmyra Road.

The Technology in Education Conference will provide an opportunity for area K-12 educators to learn ways to make effective use of educational technology. The theme is “Integrating Technology into Every Classroom.”

Speakers include Kevin Honeycutt, a specialist with the Educational Services and Staff Development Association of Central Kansas, and Alvin Trusty, director of the Educational Technology Program at the University of Findlay. Experienced teacher-presenters will offer tips and strategies of their own.

To register, visit the mcTEC link at www.MahoningESC.org
Registration must be completed by Friday.
