

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT
EDUCATIONAL SERVICE CENTER OF LORAIN COUNTY
SUPERINTENDENT SEARCH

The Educational Service Center of Lorain County Governing Board is seeking qualified applicants for the position of superintendent. This vacancy is a result of the July 31st, 2012 retirement of current superintendent Dr. Tom Rockwell. In addition to providing leadership for all programs, products and services, the Governing Board is seeking an individual who will provide dynamic entrepreneurial leadership to implement the ESC's strategic initiatives.

The successful candidate will be offered a multi-year contract and a comprehensive benefits package. Salary and other fringe benefits will be commensurate with the candidate's qualifications. The ESC Executive Search Team will be assisting the Governing Board with its search.

ABOUT THE EDUCATIONAL SERVICE CENTER OF LORAIN COUNTY

As the designated provider of Region2 State Support Team (SST) services, the ESC of Lorain County is committed to providing high quality services, programs and leadership to our educational partners. In addition to serving over forty thousand students in fourteen school districts in Lorain County, the ESC also acts as the fiscal agent for the tri county Region 2 SST.

As an organization, the ESC serves as a coordinating hub that collaborates with public school districts, institutions of higher learning, businesses and other support organizations to improve the overall quality of educational opportunities available to residents. Through our many consortiums, the ESC provides the means for school districts to save monies through shared services and to effectively provide educational programs tailored to specific groups and needs.

In an environment of increasing accountability and competition, the ESC of Lorain County remains committed to meeting the challenges of improving student achievement and providing opportunities for life-long learning and skill development.

QUALIFICATIONS

All candidates must hold or qualify for an Ohio Superintendent Certificate. Although superintendent and educational service center experience are preferred, all qualified individuals will be considered based upon their skill, experience and demonstrated ability to provide leadership. The ability to think and lead strategically are important characteristics of the successful candidate. In addition, a good business sense and an entrepreneurial spirit are supporting attributes.
